

Kids Learn How to Lead a Healthier, More Active Lifestyle

WHO: Kids age 6 - 14

WHAT: A once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to “play” in a Minor League Baseball™ stadium like professional athletes. The activities are sponsored by Sanofi US and its partner celebrity health and wellness expert Rafe Oquendo, in collaboration with Minor League Baseball and the Alliance for a Healthier Generation.

WHERE: Whitaker Bank Ballpark, home of the Lexington Legends
207 Legends Lane, Lexington, KY 40505

WHEN: Saturday, September 1, 2012
Gates open at 8:30am, event begins at 9:00am and ends at noon.
*Rain or shine

WHY: Fun-filled activities can teach kids ways to live a healthier, more active lifestyle.

Kids should be dressed and ready to play!

Play4Health™ participants will receive a goodie bag and complimentary admission (1) to the Lexington Legends vs. Rome Braves baseball game at 7:05pm on September 1.

(Discounted admission tickets will be available for purchase by participants' family members at the Play4Health event.)

Please RSVP to Sarah Piester at spiester@lexingtonlegends.com, by phone at (859) 422-7855 or in-person at the Lexington Legends Business Office, 207 Legends Lane, Lexington, KY 40505

